THREE BRIDGES FESTIVAL

CHAMBER MUSIC
IN MURRAY BRIDGE

Presented by
CHAMBER MUSIC ADELAIDE
in partnership with
MURRAY BRIDGE REGIONAL GALLERY and PERFORMING ARTS + FUNCTION CENTRE

We acknowledge the Ngarrindjeri people as the traditional owners of this land and we pay our respects to Ngarrindjeri land, waters, skies and Elders past and present. We are grateful to make and enjoy music together on this country.

Over two days, talented chamber musicians and ensembles from South Australia present an array of sublime performances that promise something for everyone. Whether you're a fan of the genre or simply curious, this festival is the perfect opportunity to discover the beauty and intimacy of chamber music.

Limited seats available. Bookings essential.

Kegelstatt Ensemble: Workshop of the Times

Beautiful, historical music, including expressionist pieces and improvisations in response to them.

Jesse Budel

Surround sound experiences of immersive contemporary music, with the option of bean bags for relaxing.

Audio Lost and Found
Featuring Keira Simmons, conjuring immersive ambient and electronic dance soundscapes.

sanctuary x mill
A multichannel work that connects the instruments and soundscapes of two ruined piano sanctuaries.

Mandala
Celebrating the soundscapes of various Australian national parks in the form of a guided sound bath meditation.

Inkling Trio

A landscape-inspired concert with this innovative trio who have roots in traditional, folk and classical styles, with jazz and modern grooves.

Katie Aspel

Katie is a proud Ngarrindjeri/Gunditjmara and rising pop/acoustic artist, sharing stories of life, love and culture.

Nathan May and Adelaide Baroque

Proud Arabana & Yawuru man Nathan May is joined by Adelaide Baroque string players.

Kids' Workshop: Thea Martin (Ages 5-10)
